This game is full of bugs, so I would not recommend it. It., the relationship with Garcias, the other witnesses' testimony, and the shooting itself, the court was free to conclude that the people living there were afraid to testify (there was indeed some testimony that at the time of the shooting five or more people were in the room with Williams, including his mother) and that the relationship between Willie's friends and the Garcias was strained. [12] While Williams argues that Williams' brother-in-law, Wayne, was "paranoid" and "told people" not to testify, Wayne was never called as a defense witness. [13] Williams asserts that the trial judge would have been required to grant the motion had he received the request to voir dire the panel of prospective jurors on October 29, 1979. The record on Williams' direct appeal shows that, after the jury was selected, the trial judge inquired of the prosecutor and Williams as to the basis of the voir dire motion. Williams did not raise at that time the claim that he was entitled to a full voir dire examination of the entire jury panel. Moreover, Williams has failed to present any evidence that he was entitled
